Colin

Vol. 1, No. 3 The newsletter of The Friends of Tom and Colin Baker December 1987

He's So Bad!

We've not yet obtained any reviews of Robinson Crusoe, the pantomime in which Colin is currently appearing, but he reports that there have been favorable ones and we hope to be able to print some in our next issue. Colin plays Bluebeard the Pirate, whom he describes thusly: "His main mission in life--panto is very basic--seems to be at all costs to put a spanner in the works and get everything that he wants--such as quests for loot and treasure and doing down Robinson Crusoe--despite everyone else's wishes." Colin wasn't given a song to perform but says he has gradually--a line at a time, until they're now doing about half of the song--gotten everyone to sing Michael Jackson's Bad along with him! Robinson Crusoe is scheduled to run through February 7th at the Wimbledon Theatre.

And Baby Will Make Four

We're starting off the new year with wonderful news: Colin and Marion are expecting a baby which is scheduled to arrive about February 8th! When asked whether they would prefer a boy or a girl, Colin said they wouldn't mind if the baby turns out to be a boy because then they would have one of each; however, since they already know from experience that they like little girls, another girl would also be welcome!

Colin reports that Lucy (who will be three on March 15th) is looking forward to having a little brother or sister, but she seems to be slightly confused. She says she would prefer a sister, but when asked what the baby should be named she answers "Brother"! Colin says he hopes the new baby will be quiet and calm and allow them to get a little sleep, but really--can anyone imagine Colin having a calm, quiet child?!

If you'd like to hear the news about the blessed event ASAP, send us an SASE!

Guess Who's Lost 50 Pounds!

We reported last time that The Sun newspaper was sponsoring Colin on a diet, and the results became official on October 21st: Colin not only reached his dieting goal but lost more weight than he had originally planned to, a total of 50 pounds in about three months! The Sun had promised to donate £100 to charity for every pound Colin lost, so his success resulted in a total of £5,000 being split between his two favorite charities--£2,500 each to The Foundation for the Study of Infant Deaths and the Aylesbury Wildlife Fund! Since then he has regained 7 pounds, explaining that "Marion didn't like me at all" at 12 st 4 lb (172 lbs). Apparently she wasn't the only one who thought he was a bit too thin then (one magazine article described him as "almost skeletal"), but since he has regained a few pounds he says everyone seems to feel he's at about the right weight. Congratulations, Colin!!

Shoppe Talk

Happy New Year! I hope all of you enjoyed the holidays. Thanks for all of your cards and other assorted greetings, which are very much appreciated even though I'm afraid I haven't been able to find time to respond to all of them!

I thought that for once I would be able to tell you I have no changes whatsoever to report, but the Post Office foiled my good intentions by assigning us a new zip code! The new numbers are 94309, effective immediately.

Before some of you complain about the scarcity of photos in this issue, let me explain that it's due not to our having run out of photos (we haven't) but rather to the amount of space devoted to printing the long-promised list of Colin's professional credits--all of the credit for which, by the way, goes to Colin himself. He went through all of his old diaries and compiled a list for us of all the work he's done, and all I had to do was retype it. Thanks, Colin!!!

When I added up this year's charity contributions I was delighted to discover that they totaled over $1700 and were almost evenly divided between the two charities (details elsewhere in this issue). You guys are fantastic!!

Till next time,

Laurie

Tube Talk

The Cross Wits shows Colin taped in September have aired. Colin's team lost one game but won two others!

A Gift of Life
1987 Charity Drive

Fifty-six of you contributed to our Christmas gift for Colin, in amounts from $1 to an extremely generous $200, and our group donation to The Foundation for the Study of Infant Deaths in Colin's name totaled $891.50 (£473.78)! An international bank draft was sent to the Foundation on December 1st, and we soon received the following response: "We were absolutely delighted to receive the most generous donation from The Friends of Tom and Colin Baker. I would ask you to thank everyone concerned for raising this money which will go towards our determined efforts to find ways of preventing the tragedy of cot death."

The following message was received from Colin: "In the midst of the excitement and fun of Christmas it is sometimes, alas, too easy to forget the real meaning of Christmas--so it is very heartwarming to be so wonderfully reminded of that meaning by the generosity of the club's members to cot death research in my name as a Christmas gift for me. It is just about the nicest thing you could all have done. On behalf of those children of the future who may live due to your generosity -- thank you, thank you, thank you, and Happy New Year."

Those Elusive Little Trolls...

We don't quite have a handle yet on the trolls audio tape that Colin recorded, but we're working on it. It's apparently now out on the market, so we hope to (1) be able to print a review of it in our next issue and (2) also arrange to place a bulk order for the tapes via the club.

Teddy Bears Galore!

Colin emceed two Teddy Bears Concerts at the Barbican Centre in London on Dec. 20th and Jan. 3rd. Colin says the events are held during holiday times and are intended to introduce young children to concerts and show them that it can be fun to go and listen to an orchestra. Colin introduced each item on the program and sang "The Teddy Bears' Picnic." Children are encouraged to bring their teddy bears, and Colin went out into the audience with a microphone to meet some of the bears.

Back to the Future...

Colin says he is currently trying to decide between three jobs he's been offered, so we hope to have some interesting news to report in the next issue!

Convention Update

Subject to professional commitments, Colin will appear at Magnum Opus Con 3, to be held March 25-27, 1988, in Columbus, Georgia. For information send an SASE to MOC 3; 4315 Pio Nono Avenue; Macon, GA 31206.

Mailbag

If you're wondering why there isn't a question and answer column this time in Colin's section, as proposed in our last issue, it's because so far no one has sent in any questions for him to answer--probably because he still appears to be finding time to answer a lot of his mail! If the situation changes and we begin receiving questions for him, then we'll begin printing a Q&A column. If you want to write directly to Colin even though he may not be able to reply, here's his address: Box 216, High Wycombe, Bucks. HP14 3PA, U.K.

Tom

Vol. 1, No. 3 The newsletter of The Friends of Tom and Colin Baker December 1987

This photo apparently appeared in the TV listings of some British newspapers (year unknown), accompanied by the following caption: Tom "Dr. Who" Baker has a seasonable guest in "The Book Tower" (ITV, Monday). Lad, one of only 106 reindeer left in the British Isles, adds a lively touch to a story called "How Santa Claus Had a Long and Difficult Journey Delivering His Presents." (Photo compliments of Yorkshire Television, caption courtesy of member Robin Lancaster.)

Cats Here, Cats There . . . Cats Everywhere!

Here's the latest info from Tom regarding his amazing collection of cats: "Brenda had seven Burmillas, cross versions of Persian Chinchillas and Burmese. Out of seven, six survived. Garbo had seven also; only four survived. So the list now is:

Willow (pure white and bad tempered)
Magic (jet black and desperately shy)
Norman (lilac, full of love)
Brenda (Burmese)
Garbo (Burmese)
Miss Smith (chocolate Burmese)"
Trevor (Burmilla)
Malcom (Burmilla)
Reg (chocolate Burmese)
Wilf (lilac Burmese)
Vera (lilac Burmese)

Tom said that the nights have gotten dark and cold and that the cats all love the fire! He had sad news to report about two of his cats, though: "In October/November our lovely Horace disappeared. Two weeks later Alfie disappeared, too. We found Alfie (murdered) at a crossroads 200 yeards away. The autopsy revealed that he'd been shot at point-blank range. We were devastated and dread there might be a cat hater in the region." We sincerely hope that isn't the case, and that the rest of Tom's affectionate four-footed friends will be with him for a long time to come!

The World According to Tom

Tom's reaction to the closing of An Inspector Calls on Oct. 31st was: "I'm so relieved to be demobilised at last!" He reports that there is "no work in the future as far as I can see." It has been rumored that Coast to Coast Productions is considering asking Tom to play the Doctor in their movie, but Tom says they haven't contacted him.

Tom reports that just before Christmas he narrated A Christmas Carol in two churches. "It went quite well." He also mentioned that carolers planned to come to his house, "to sing to me and then drink mulled wine and eat chocolate and mince pies." Tom and Sue have lived in a tiny village ever since their marriage almost two years ago, and he really seems to love country life. "I hear on the grape (champagne) vine that local people are quite pleased to have me here in Kent, and I'm ecstatic to be here." As usual, Tom has been reading a lot: "I remain steeped in Charles Dickens. Little Dorrit and Our Mutual Friend amaze me."

This year 63 of you contributed to our charity donation in Tom's name--in amounts from $1 to a wonderfully generous $125--and the total collected was $815 (£432.43)! On Dec. 1 an international bank draft was sent to "Help a Child to See" headquarters in London, and we received the following response from Dr. David Taylor: "Thank you all very much indeed for your extremely generous donation. I am most grateful for your continuing support and the donation will be put to very good use." Tom wrote: "The contribution to "Help a Child to See" is really wonderful news. That really lifts me up high."

That's about all Tom had to say this time--except to add "Happy New Year to you and all our friends!"

WHOMOBILIA

88 ROSEBANK, HOLYPORT ROAD, LONDON SW6 6LJ

Whomobilia has been selling photographs from "Doctor Who" for over four years, with the full cooperation of the BBC. We are licensed by BBC Enterprises, and a proportion of the price of each photograph is paid to the BBC, who in turn offer a royalty payment to the artistes featured in the photographs. At present there are 260 color and 40 black & white photographs available.

The BBC allows me to borrow the ORIGINAL slides/negatives from which "internegs" or copy negatives are made, thus ensuring the quality of the photographs on sale is of the highest quality. All photographs are mailed in cardbaord-backed envelopes (or cardboard rolls in the case of Extra-Large photos) to ensure their safe and undamaged delivery, despite the combined efforts of the British and American Post Offices to the contrary!

A lot of people are very nervous about sending money to another country for goods. They are not sure about exchange rates, how long it will take, how much to add on for postage, how to send money etc. In order to reassure you, firstly all prices are quoted in US dollars. Secondly, there is a flat $2.00 postage charge - so if you order a whole batch of photos at once you can save quite a lot of money. Thirdly, letters sent air-mail generally take between 3 and 6 days to arrive. If I have the photos in stock I can often get the order off to you within a couple of days, but even if I have to order fresh stocks it shouldn't take longer than two weeks. Of course somtimes I do attend US conventions, and since I am not at home to deal with the mail, orders are delayed by a couple of weeks, but even in the worst case photos should be with you within 4 weeks of your sending the order. Fourthly, I do accept US$ personal checks, so there is no need for you to go to all the bother and expense of obtaining foreign money orders. If you do not have a checking account then the simplest way is to get an International Money Order (in US$) from your local Post Office.

A new batch of photographs is released every few months : Photos 223-260 were released in October, and numbers 261-290 should just be out by the time you read this (These will be entirely taken from the last three stories of the current season, so no Tom or Colin photos this time I'm afraid. Whenever you buy photogaphs I include the latest photo list when returning the order, so that way you can keep up to date with the latest photos on offer.

When ordering photographs, with your FIRST order only, I would be very grateful if you could let me know how you heard about these photos. That way I learn which are the most effective forms of advertising, which in turn helps me to plan future campaigns. If you have already ordered from me then please don't bother with this.

I hope that having read of the many photos, particularly of Tom and Colin, that you will decide to order some of them, and I look forward to hearing from you.

John G McElroy (January 1988)

* All checks should be made payable to : John G McELROY
* Please order photos by number and size eg. 6(XL) ; 39 (M) ; 154(L) etc.
* When ordering the Black & White photographs please be sure to include the BW prefix to avoid confusion with color photos
* All orders should be sent to :
  WHOMOBILIA, 88 ROSEBANK, HOLYPORT ROAD, LONDON SW6 6LJ, ENGLAND
* It is a BBC condition of sale that these photographs should not be copied or published or used for any other commercial purpose
